The Reckless Saints

Partners in music and love since 2003, Roy Schneider and Kim Mayfield began recording and touring in 2008. "Blue Twangled Folk n' Roll" is Roy's answer to the question, "What kind of music do you play?" The Fort Myers-based duo decided to use his answer as the album title for their new release while also adopting the title of their 2018 release Reckless Saints as their new band moniker. Tickets $30

ACADEMY OF LIFELONG LEARNING

Thursday, September 12 • 10 a.m.

Barefoot Marines

Author Robert Macomber will share the heart-warming story of the Samoan warriors who joined the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps and stood guard against the Japanese onslaught in World War II, thus beginning the proud Samoan tradition of service in the American military. Tickets $15

Monday, September 16 • 10 a.m.

Med Kellum's South Seas Voyage

Join Historian Cesar Becerra in The Woodlands Grand Cypress Room as he shares the story of Florida pioneers Ada and Medford Kellum's voyage to the South Pacific in their personal four-mast schooner, the Kaimiloa. Accompanied by a select group of scientists into uncharted territory, find out what they learned in their pursuit of new discoveries. Tickets $15

Thursday, September 26 • 4 p.m.

Broadway: The Hits and the Flops

Come join the fun as FGCU Professor Tom Cimarusti introduces a number of select Broadway hits by Rodgers & Hammerstein and Sondheim, as well as the disastrous flops that attempted to redefine musical theater. Following an examination of the cultural context in which such musicals were composed, Dr. Cimarusti will analyze some of Broadway's most beloved songs. Tickets $15
